

The letter from Unit 1 members working the Department of French was presented to members of the department's faculty, ten of whom expressed their support in response.